GOODBYE, MR. PID

While trying to compose just the "right" words to dedicate the SKYLINE '81 Yearbook to Mr. Quentin L. Pidcock, the yearbook staff ironically found the following description in the 1954 SKYLINE. "In recognition and appreciation of his invariable loyalty to Waynesboro High School and the time, skill, and services he has given so freely, we dedicate this volume of the SKYLINE with affection and gratitude to Quentin Pidcock, who is known for his patience and friendliness." We heartily concurred with our counterparts from the past.

"Mr. Pid," as he is affectionately known by students and teachers alike, came to Waynesboro High School in 1944. For the next 37 years he taught Industrial Arts and touched the lived of a countless number of students in his classes. In addition, Mr. Pid came to be known to many, many students as the "friendly keeper" of the after-school detention hall. On behalf of all of these people and more, the Skyline Yearbook Staff wishes Mr. Pid a fond farewell and a well-deserved retirement.

Look back now into the morning of memory . . .
Where were the scenes
What were the events
There are good times you wish would last forever and think will never end
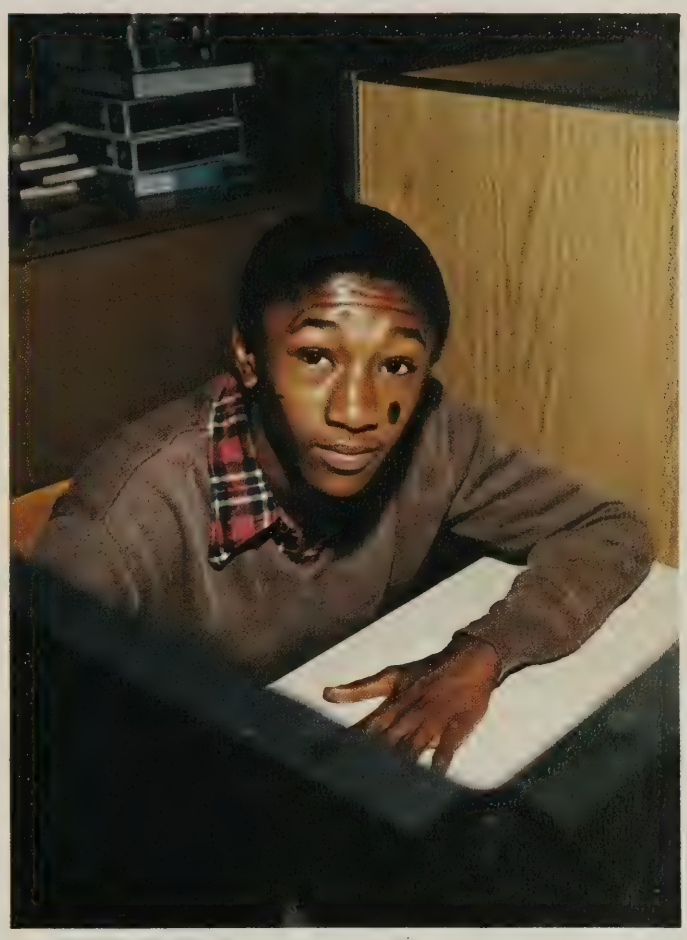
Most of all . . . there are people



Life is an endless search for self-knowledge, a bittersweet time of reaching,
touching, discovering . . . becoming . . .

These are the moments that soar above all the rest
Like beacon towers against the skyline of memory

HOMECOMING SPIRIT AT WHS

FANTASY

HOMECOMING 1980

Homecoming 1980 was one of the most memorable of such events in recent years at Waynesboro High School. The festivities of Homecoming Week began with three days of "spirit dress" — a "purple and gold day", a "crazy day", and a "Fifties day". On the night of the big game, excitement filled the air as everyone anticipated the encounter with Turner Ashby High School and the traditional halftime ceremony. Although spirits were dampened as the Little Giants lost the game, the Homecoming Dance on the following night perked everyone up again. "Fantasy", a product of weeks of preparation by the Pep Club, featured the band "Nickel Bridge" who helped make it a night to remember.

A picture postcard,
a folded stub,
a program of the play,
File away the photographs of your holiday.
And your mementos
will turn to dust, but that's the price you pay
For every year is a souvenir that slowly fades away.

STUDENT LIFE

JUST ANOTHER FACE IN THE CROWD

WAYNESBORO STUDENTS EXHIBIT VARIETY OF TALENTS

One of the most important aspects of high school life is competition. Students at Waynesboro High worked very hard this year to excel in interscholastic sports, the fine arts, and vocational and academic competition. The determination and talent demonstrated by participants in these fields of endeavor aided in developing school spirit and individual self-esteem and helped to keep the WHS banner flying high.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT INSPIRES STUDENTS

Students from Waynesboro High School demonstrated a great interest in national, state, and local events during the 1980-81 school year. The Presidential Election, the release of the 53 American hostages in Iran, and the terrible Atlanta tragedy all inspired school involvement. In addition, the local community benefited from fund-raising events and other projects throughout the year. SODA members counseled elementary children in developing wholesome attitudes while other groups held leaf rakes, bake sales, and car washes. The "Jump Rope For Heart" and helping with the bloodmobile were just a few of the many services performed by WHS students. In the area of entertainment, drama, choral, and band groups thrilled local patrons. By participating in such activities, Waynesboro students helped make the transition from high school to the "real world" a little easier.

AUTUMN FROLIC

This year, members of the class of '81 sponsored a leaf rake as a service for the community and to raise money for the Senior Class treasury. The work was done by a small, dedicated group who spent most of their free time to aid in the money-raising effort. Because there were so many requests from local residents, these students worked weekends and after school for nearly six weeks to get the job done. The plot centered around a rich, old man who died and yearned to haunt his own house only to find four other ghosts already there. Meanwhile, the old man's young cook was mistaken for his illigitimate daughter. Under the guidance of faculty director Mr. Duane Hahn and student director Renee Vidal, the cast of eight seniors rehearsed for many hours to make the show a success. FACULTY SURPRISES SENIORS

For the first time in many years, the Senior Class sponsored a student-faculty basketball game. The upstart students were greatly shocked by the abilities of the "old men" of the faculty as the teachers won in an unexpected slaughter, 89-46. High scorer for the faculty was Mr. David Huffer while Keith "Toad" Burnett led the students. Each squad was cheered on by their own special contigent of "cheerleaders." Although the game was not a great financial success, it did earn some money for the Class of '81. Most of all, however, the contest provided a lot of fun for participants and spectators alike.

The WHS participants handled themselves well in committee work and floor debate, and several of their bills passed both houses of the student assembly and were signed into law by the Youth Governor. Individual standouts included David Thompson who served very effectively in the important position of Speaker of the House while Steve Switzer skillfully chaired one of the four House committees.

(1) LISA KAY FERRIER (Web): "A brief candle, both ends burning, an endless mile, a bus wheel turning, a friend to share the lonesome times, a handshake and a sip of wine, so say it loud and let it ring, that we're all a part of everything, the present, future and the past, fly on proud bird, you're free at last!"

JUNIORS OVERTAKE SENIORS

In the Second Annual "Class Night" sponsored by the Pep Club, last year's victors, the Class of '81, were narrowly defeated by the team from the junior class even though the seniors won the culminating event — the tug-of-war. While class competition was excellent in the many varied events, the enthusiasm and good sportsmanship demonstrated by all who participated made the event very enjoyable again this year.

MORE THAN A FEELING

In keeping with tradition, this year's junior class honored the graduating seniors with the annual school Prom. Borrowing their theme from the Boston album, "More Than a Feeling," the juniors decorated the school gym with a huge spaceship and blue and white streamers. Dancing in this setting to the music provided by the local band, "Headwind," members of the Class of '81 enjoyed another night that they would always remember.

As a symbol of graduation, seniors and their escorts proceeded through the ring figure and took part in the turning of the ring. He urged the graduating seniors to add the quality of leadership in order to insure success in life. Remarks were also delivered by class valedictorian David Thompson and salutatorian Debbie Pleasants, and the traditional class gift was presented by senior Vice-President Lisa Shields. IN MEMORIAM

Mark Duane Vandevander
1962-1981

Beyond the rainbow's end, there lies,
The land of love and light
Where shadows never dim the skies,
For there — there is no night,
And the loss is hard to bear
Of our friend,
But we know that we will find him there
Beyond the rainbow's end.

CLASS OF '82

The Junior Class Council, class officers and sponsor led the Class of 1982 through some memorable times during the 1980-81 school year. The highlight of the year was the Junior Variety Show, "'82's Incredible", an event that provided many exciting moments for all who participated. Other big events included the Junior-Senior Prom and an upset victory by the juniors in the second annual "Class Night".

RINGS ARE HERE!

In late October, 1980, juniors eagerly ordered their class rings. Each student chose their favorite style out of a variety of stones and settings. Then the long wait began — November . . . . December . . . . January. Finally, the rings arrived in February and became a significant part of each junior's attire thereafter.

"'82's INCREDIBLE"

The 1981 Junior Variety Show, "'82's Incredible," proved to be enjoyable for the audience but even more so for the participants. Although the planning, preparation, and practice was long and arduous, the many juniors who participated in and helped with the show could take pride in a job well done. By working together, members of the Class of '82 developed a kinship and camaraderie that was very important to class spirit. Also significant was that the money earned for the class treasury enabled the juniors to hold a great Prom for the Classes of '81 and '82.

CLASS NIGHT

In the second annual "Class Night" sponsored by the WHS Pep Club, the Class of '82 reigned supreme as the juniors narrowly claimed victory over the seniors and easily outdistanced the sophomores. The victory seemed all the more rewarding since the Class of '82 almost won the title last year over the eventual champ — the Class of '81. Watch out for next year juniors and sophomores!

MORE THAN A FEELING

This year members of the Class of '82 added yet another link in the long chain of events with the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom, "More Than A Feeling". The juniors worked very hard to decorate the school gym and carefully planned and carried out many other details to honor the Class of '81 and to provide for themselves a night to remember. With the Prom deemed a success, members of the junior class could relax from a job well done.

BOYS' STATE AND GIRLS' STATE

Near the end of the 1980-81 school year, eleven members of the Class of '82 were chosen to attend Boys' and Girls' State — two traditional events held annually in the summer between the junior and senior years of high school. Sponsored by the American Legion, the WHS participants were nominated by the school's faculty with final selections made by local sponsoring civic clubs and organizations. Held at Lynchburg and Longwood Colleges, respectively, Boys' and Girls' State provide opportunities for students to learn first-hand about the functioning of government and to develop leadership qualities. As in past years, the program was a rewarding experience for those who were involved.

SOPHOMORES GET EXPERIENCE

Much of the sophomore year was spent getting adjusted to senior high school, but the transition was made easier by the many sophomores who contributed to school sports, clubs, and other activities. While the class did not have any major traditional events equal to the Senior Play or the Junior Variety Show, they still had a lot of fun. "Career Day" was one enjoyable tenth grade activity, and participation with the juniors and seniors in "Class Night" gave the sophs a chance to shine. With a year's experience under their belts, leaders and members of the Class of '83 were ready for their junior year.

CAREER DAY

In the third annual Career Day held at Augusta Expoland, tenth-grade students from Waynesboro, Staunton, and Augusta County got a chance to explore many different careers that are available after high school. Some WHS sophomores took advantage of the more practical demonstrations such as hair cutting while others made the rounds and grabbed an assortment of gifts offered by the many exhibitors.

SOPHOMORES IN SPORTS

A major contribution to Waynesboro High School by members of the sophomore class was in the area of interscholastic sports. On every Little Giant athletic team, you could find sophomores contributing their efforts and talents to help Waynesboro gain victory. By participating in athletics, these members of the Class of '83 added a lot to school spirit and distinguished themselves in the process.

CLASS NIGHT

Although the Class of '83 placed third in the Pep Club's second annual "Class Night", they did play a major role in deciding the final outcome. Due partly to the sophomores defeat of the seniors in the "tug of war", the juniors were able to take the championship. Despite their last place finish, members of the Class of '83 greatly enjoyed the friendly competition which helped to make the classes more united.

FACULTY

EDUCATIONAL STAFF IS SUPER

With teacher strikes scattered throughout the nation and "work to the contract" actions on the increase in Virginia, WHS students and citizens of this community should indeed by very proud of the educators at Waynesboro High School. Administrators, counselors, and classroom teachers have continued to give of themselves far beyond the call of duty, thus demonstrating a high degree of professionalism. These educators have worked very hard to give the students of this school a good education not only in the classroom but in the many, many extra-curricular activities. While most students, parents, and other community residents take all of this for granted, the Skyline Yearbook Staff wishes to thank the educators of Waynesboro High School for their outstanding efforts.

ACTIVE ATHLETES HAVE HEART

In addition to promoting girls' athletics at Waynesboro High School, the Active Athletes Club undertook some school and civic projects during the 1980-81 year. The club provided a "record board" for girls' track in the Athletic Department and made plans for a "WHS Athletic Hall of Fame" in the main lobby of the school gym. In their biggest endeavor of the year, the club helped stage a "Jump Rope For Heart" with proceeds going to the American Heart Association. Over a hundred students gave of their time and energy by securing sponsors and then jumping rope in near marathon fashion to raise money for this worthy cause.

ART GUILD REMAINS ACTIVE

This year the Art Guild continued to be one of the more active student organizations at Waynesboro High School. As in the past, the group demonstrated civic duty by assisting with the city's Fall Foliage Festival. Guild members designed art materials for many school functions including "Giant" posters, the J.V. Show program, and miscellaneous school decorations. The club also helped maintain a very attractive and timely school bulletin board dealing with such topics as the Hostage Crisis and Black History. As part of a national trend, the guild prepared a "Green Ribbon" display to remind students and teachers of the terrible Atlanta tragedy. Members also cleaned up the Art Department Patio and planted flowers there in the spring, sponsored a "Spring Art Festival", and sold prints to raise money for student scholarships. The club also took part in many educational activities including lectures by the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and visiting artists.

BAND WELCOMES MR. BORRELL

Under new director Mr. Ray Borrell, the WHS Band began working at a week-long music camp during the summer prior to the school year. For their hard work and effort in this endeavor, members were rewarded with a "watermelon feast". As the year got underway, the Band began performing at home football games and later at basketball games, while the Pep Band lent its enthusiasm to away games. The Band sponsored a dance in December, staged two lively concerts in February and May, and participated in "Band Festival" at Western Albermarle in March. To assist the Band Booster Club in raising money for new uniforms, members of the Band held a car wash and bake sale in April at IGA. At the end of the year, underclass Band students played the traditional music for Commencement exercises.

BETA CLUB HONORS STUDENTS

The National Beta Club is an academic-service organization for students in grades six through twelve. Grades six through nine comprise the Junior Beta Club, while students in grades nine through twelve form the Senior Beta Club. It recognizes and promotes commendable achievement in the areas of scholarship, character, and leadership. At Waynesboro High School, its members must maintain a 3.2 academic average as sophomores and a 3.0 during the junior and senior years. During the 1980-81 school year, the WHS Chapter was mostly an honors organization, performing little in the area of services and conducting very few activities. The group did hold a car wash in May to raise money for Beta Club scholarships awarded at the end of the year.

SENIORS — FIRST ROW: Amy Smith, Renee Vidal, Wanda Waggy, Sherrie Cupp, Sarita Hamilton, Debbie Pleasants, Bonnie Owens, Alicia Meeks, Barbara Wagner, Candy Partridge. CONCERT CHOIR IS SUPERB

The 1980-81 Waynesboro High School Concert Choir enjoyed a very busy and rewarding year. Providing superb entertainment for local residents, the Choir staged their annual shows in the fall and spring and gave their traditional concerts at Christmas and at the end of the year. The "Singing Ambassadors" from WHS also performed for the local chapter of the Masons, sang at Main Street United Methodist Church, and took part in the school division's elementary workship. In competition with other schools, the WHS Choir sent twenty-three members of their group to Regionals, seven to All-Virginia, while seven were also chosen to the State Honors Choir. In long-distance excursions this year, the Choir sang in Charlotte, North Carolina and took their yearly extravaganza to the "Big Apple" — New York City.

CHORALE SERVES SPECIAL PURPOSE

While not as well known as the Concert Choir, the WHS Chorale maintains its own level of music ability and is an active group. Composed of students from grades eleven and twelve, the Chorale serves partly as a training ground for the Concert Choir, while those who do not make that select group can still get another year of singing experience.

In addition to its Christmas and Spring Concerts, the 1980-81 Chorale sang for the Waynesboro Rotary Club at the General Wayne Motor Inn and provided some much-appreciated entertainment for the senior citizens at the area Liberty House. Like the Tenth Grade Chorus and other choirs in the school division's music program, the Chorale, too, serves a very special purpose.

DEBATE ON THE RISE

Debate was on the upswing at Waynesboro High School during 1980-81 as more students participated in this academic pursuit than had done so in recent years. The WHS debaters took part in tournaments at Wilson and Lord Botetourt High Schools and meets sponsored by Bridgewater College and VMI. At the close of the year, several members made plans to attend a summer workshop to improve their skills for the coming debate season. In addition to these intellectual pursuits, the debate team enjoyed several social events in the form of parties and outings during the year.

DECA TRADITION

The WHS DECA Club continued its traditional activities of running the concession stands at home football games and sponsoring the annual Christmas Open House for teachers and administrators. The club also participated in an officer training program at JMU and held a dinner and installation of officers. DECA members took a well-deserved field trip to Tanglewood Mall in Roanoke and attended a business seminar at Leggetts. In hope of continuing the DECA tradition, the club presented a recruitment program to the incoming ninth grade at Kate Collins Jr. High.

DRAMA CLUB

One of the most talented and active groups at Waynesboro High School is the Drama Club. This year the actors performed a children's play, "The King Who Loved Lollipops", at all of the city's elementary schools and sponsored another children's production, "The Princess, the Poet, and the Little Grey Man", which was a traveling group of actors from the Children's Theater Workshops. The WHS dramatists continued their busy year by participating in the Waynesboro Christmas Parade where they won second place in the novelty division. They hosted the Regional One-Act Play Festival, sponsored a "Kissing Booth" in the "Giant Spring Festival", and produced their annual "Spring Cabaret" — a festive night of plays, skits, and musical numbers. Taking time out to enjoy the work of others, the Drama Club attended plays in Charlottesville and Richmond.

FBLA SERVES

The WHS chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America served their school, community, and nation this year by conducting many civic projects. FBLA members collected money for the Arthritis Foundation and the March of Dimes. As in the past, members made "turkey decorations" for local hospital patients during Thanksgiving. At Christmas time, they collected and distributed canned foods for people in need in the Waynesboro area. To raise money for club needs, FBLA'ers sold stationery as a school project.

FHA GETS INVOLVED

With the theme of "Fathers, Mothers, and Others", the Future Homemakers of America kicked off a very busy and rewarding year. Members viewed numerous filmstrips relating to the topic — "Prenatal Care," "Infant Care," "Child Abuse," etc. The students also had firsthand experience with visits to local day-care centers, working with the Keyettes to babysit for "Parents Anonymous", and helping with WHS's pre-school program. FHA also sold Stanley products as a club fund-raiser and held their annual open house for parents and teachers at Christmas time.

KEY CLUB PERFORMS SERVICES

For many years now, the Key Club of Waynesboro High School has served the school by lining the football field and setting up the gym bleachers, helping with crowd control, and sweeping up during home basketball games. In addition, this year Key Clubbers gave a dinner for their sponsor — the Waynesboro Kiwanis Club — and cleaned up the Kiwanis Lake. Key Club members also attended Kiwanis meetings to get a first-hand view of how their parent club operates. On the fun side this year, members participated in an exciting ski trip to the nearby Wintergreen Resort.

KEYETTES STAY BUSY

Probably the busiest club at Waynesboro High School is the Keyettes — an organization that performs many very useful services. Every Monday night you could find Keyette members babysitting for the Parent's Anonymous Program. At other times, you might find them assisting with the area Bloodmobile, the Multiple Schlerosis Society, and the Cancer Crusade, or working at a Hospital Bazaar. Around the high school, the Keyettes served as ushers at open house, hosted a well-deserved dinner for the cafeteria workers, while the underclass members served as ushers at graduation time. The club also maintained some of the bulletin boards during football and basketball season. In addition to all of the work, the Keyettes enjoyed many social functions including dinners, parties, and a ski trip.

LATIN LOVERS

The WHS Latin Club was on the go in 1980-81 as interest in this classical civilization continued to increase. The year started off with the club taking a fun trip to Busch Gardens — The Old Country. In the annual statewide Junior Classical League Convention in Roanoke in the fall, Billy Brown achieved a milestone for Waynesboro High as he won first place in two competitive events — costume and small models for catapults. In November Latin Club members sponsored a trip to a "Stampede" concert. During March the group conducted a city-wide fruit sale to raise money for the club's coffers. As much of America watched the epic television production "Masada" in the spring, Latin followers at WHS were encouraged to build their own "version" of a Roman catapult.

LETTERMEN LOSE TO MOTHER NATURE

Formed as an organization for letter winners in varsity sports and cheerleading, the Waynesboro High Lettermen's Club also undertakes to provide activities for its members and the school as a whole. One of the biggest and most anticipated events in the school each year is the "Powder-puff Football Game." The contest matches all-girl teams from the junior and senior classes while guys from the respective classes serve as "cheerleaders." As luck would have it, this year Mother Nature would not cooperate as the game was postponed three times due to bad weather and was then finally cancelled. Despite this disappointment, the Lettermen were able to take their annual outing to see a professional football game in Baltimore.

COUNCIL AIDS LIBRARY

The WHS Library Council provides its members with the opportunity to learn about the functioning of the library, while at the same time, the group performs many useful duties to assist the librarians and the student-body. Council members check out books, shelve books, assist in book guidance, and help with maintaining periodicals and newspapers. The club sponsors an annual "bookfair" — a sale of paperbacks — to raise money and provide students and teachers with many low cost books they otherwise might not buy. As well as learning the mechanics of running the library, the council enjoyed several social functions during the year which included skating parties and spaghetti dinners.

OFFICERS — Tammy Lowery, secretary; Tom Hite, reporter; Pat Belcher, president; Tom Rohr, treasurer; Lisa Johnson, vice-president.

In academic competition in the area of mathematics during the 1980-81 school year, Waynesboro High School students demonstrated a very high level of competence. The events that WHS participated in this year were the State Math Contest at Blue Ridge Community College, the annual math contest sponsored by James Madison University, the Virginia Mathematics League competition, the Mathematics Association of America Contest, and the Computer Contest hosted by Longwood College. The honors and awards won by the Waynesboro Math students pictured above were so numerous that space does not allow for all of them to be listed. Suffice it to say, they were in the forefront at all levels of competition.

NHS HONORS ACHIEVERS

If a Waynesboro High School student has a 3.5 grade-point average at the end of his/her sophomore or junior year and if this person has qualities of leadership, service, and character, then they are elected to the National Honor Society. The high point of the year for NHS members and those who aspire to belong is the annual Awards Assembly at the end of the school year. At this time, these students are recognized for their outstanding academic excellence, and the new members are announced. In addition to the honors bestowed upon them, NHS members also perform two important services for the senior class. They are in charge of the popular "senior wills" and organize and conduct the voting for the "senior superlatives."

NEWSPAPER STAFF INFORMS COMMUNITY

The school Newspaper Staff is an adjunct of the journalism class taught by Mr. Thomas Taylor of the English Department. The staff publishes the popular Waynesboro High Times — a weekly feature of the Waynesboro News-Virginian. To increase their knowledge of news gathering and production this year, members of the staff toured radio station WAYB and the aforementioned News-Virginian. A new feature for the High Times during 1980-81 was the weekly "teacher caricature" drawn by WHS art students. This added an element of mystery as everyone had to guess who the teacher was because no names were given. Regular coverage of school sports, clubs, social life, and feature articles on teachers and students, all helped keep the community, WHS students and local residents alike, informed on the happenings at Waynesboro High School.

"SUNDAY COSTS FIVE PESOS"

A light comedy of Mexican village life, "Sunday Costs Five Pesos," under the direction of Mr. Duane E. Hahn, was this year's entry in the Valley District One-Act Play Festival. This fast-moving comedy concerned with a firey love triangle, won for the WHS troupe a "Distinguished Participant" rating enabling them to advance to Regional competition. Christy Parker won plaudits by receiving the award for "Best Actress" in the Valley District with her portrayal of the hot-headed Mexican girl, Berta.

Waynesboro hosted the Region II Play Festival where six schools were entered. Once again Waynesboro's polished performances won for the actors a "Distinguished Participant" rating, and once again Christy Parker received the award for "Best Actress" in Region II. From Regionals the group of actors and loyal stage crew went to the State Festival at the University of Virginia and performed with thirty-six other play casts for a week of one-acts. Locally, the WHS Cast last performed the play for the Waynesboro AAUW and again at the annual Drama Club "Spring Cabaret."

PEP CLUB PROMOTES SPIRIT

The Pep Club sponsored a variety of activities this year to encourage and exemplify school spirit at Waynesboro High School. As in past years, the club planned and carried out one of the biggest events of the school year — the annual Homecoming. Also during football season, they held a "Parent's Night" after the last home game to honor these loyal supporters of the team. During basketball season, Pep Club members bought refreshments for the Little Giant cagers. To raise money for the club treasury while at the same time promoting spirit, members sold cups and pom-poms to WHS students. In April the Pep Club continued with last year's tradition by sponsoring a "Class Night" to promote friendly competition between the sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

CLUB EXPLORES SCIENCE

The WHS Science Club continued to promote interest in the sciences during the 1980-81 school year. Again this year, the club visited the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. to see the many exhibits and artifacts from the field of science that are displayed in this superb museum complex. Club members continued to hear lectures from visiting scientists — this year's topic being "black holes" in outer space. The club also maintained its tradition of raising money by assisting at a kennel club dog show. A new feature this year was a field trip to nearby Grand Caverns where members got to see one of the marvels of nature in this part of the world.

SODA SERVES CITY'S YOUTH

Unlike most school groups, the main purpose of the Student Organization for Developing Attitudes (SODA) is to work directly with young students in the city's elementary schools in a "big brother, big sister" type approach. SODA members try to develop in their "students" wholesome attitudes, self-awareness, and a good self-image. They also spend a lot of time answering questions that the younger students have. SODA has been a successful program over the years — one that is enjoyed by both the high school and elementary students. While their chief function differs, many activities of SODA are the same as other school organizations. They held car washes and bake sales to raise money and enjoyed several social functions such as a dinner and a picnic.

SPANISH CULTURE

The WHS Spanish Club enjoyed a very busy year in 1980-81 as they planned and carried out a wide variety of activities. In the fall during National School Lunch week, members decorated the school cafeteria. In October the club learned about the people and culture of Bolivia in an interesting talk by Reverend McArden. To sample Mexican-style food, the group dined at the Fiesta Cantina in Charlottesville. In December the club held a "Christmas Fiesta" where food and games were enjoyed by all. The dreary month of February was livened up by a "Spanish Carnival" complete with decorations, costumes, original food, and Spanish games and music. In March Miss Lynn Hilton of the WHS Art Department shared her slides and commentary on Mexico with club members. At the end of the year, a picnic was held at the home of Spanish Club sponsor, Mrs. Kathy Hosmanek where awards for attendance and active participation were given and members received Spanish T-shirts.

STUDENT-FACULTY ADVISORY BOARD

The Student-Faculty Board serves as a liaison between the students and the faculty. The group meets to discuss concerns from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, and decides whether or not to present recommendations to the school administration. 1980-81 was a smooth and successful year according to board president Bobby Knecht as there were no major problems to be ironed out. Most matters were just routine.

VICA VISITS SITES

The Waynesboro chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) spent most of their activity time going on field trips. The club visited the fabulous Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. and took several short trips to area industrial sites. At the end of the year, VICA members enjoyed a fun trip to Kings Dominion. To raise money for club activities, members sold iron-on patches and posters during the year.

YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Youth Advisory Council (YAC) did a lot to improve the school lunch program this year. Early in the school year, they polled the student body to determine what kinds of foods were favored, and with this information the YAC helped to plan the lunch menus. The group also maintained an attractive cafeteria bulletin board throughout the year.

YEARBOOK STAFF OVERCOMES PANIC

'Twas the day before deadline
And all was not right,
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mite.
We editors screamed
At the top of our lungs,
"Sponsor! Dear sponsor!
What can be done?
We can't find the pictures,
The photographers are gone,
The dark room is flooded —
This just can't go on!"
Late into the night
We worked (until day),
Got the yearbook finished,
And sent it away.

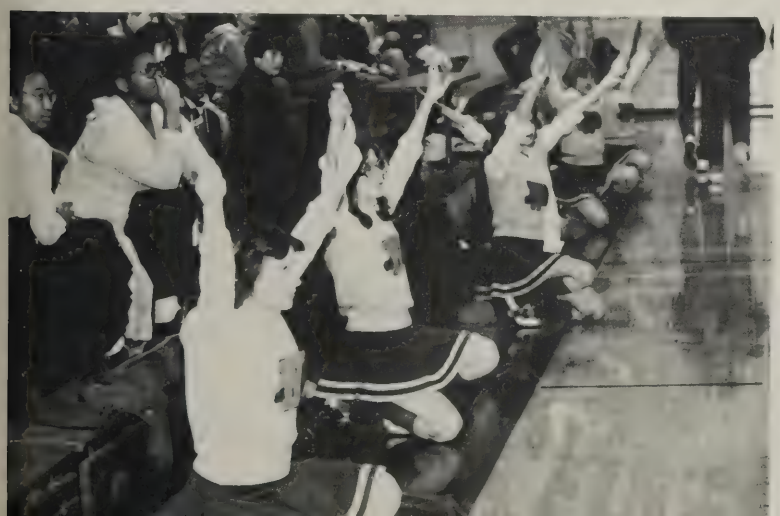
WE'VE GOT SPIRIT



"We've got spirit" is a time-honored cheer that aptly described the WHS cheerleaders during the 1980-1981 sports season. In the summer prior to the school year, the combined squads of varsity and junior varsity won the coveted "spirit megaphone" at the Golden Eagle Cheerleading Camp. This was quite an honor being that the competition included schools from all over the state. This spirit and enthusiasm continued throughout the year and could be felt at all football and basketball games, wrestling matches, and pep rallies.

FOOTBALL STANDOUTS

Although recordwise the Little Giant Varsity Football Team's 3-7 season was a disappointment, it was highlighted by a number of exciting football games and individual accomplishments. Despite their poor record, caused partly by a number of injuries to key players, including the loss of three captains, the Giants did manage to defeat their two biggest rivals — Stuart's Draft and Wilson Memorial. In the confrontation with the Cougars, WHS came from behind to narrowly defeat their foe 21-20. In the other game they completely demolished the Green Hornets 26-8.

The 1980 football squad was led by Scotty Snead and Bobby Knecht who both established new school records. Snead, an All-District end, set a record of 45 receptions for 698 yards with six catches resulting in touchdowns. Knecht, the team's quarterback, broke a record when he threw for nine TD's. On defense, Snead, Doug Rines, and Doug Swartz were named All-District while Robby Rule, Billy Dickerson, and Jon Schriver made Second-Team All-District. The leading tackler from this group was Robby Rule — only the second player in school history to surpass 100 tackles in one season.

The Waynesboro High School Cross Country Team remained undefeated for the third consecutive season. Little G's posted marks of 7-0 overall and 5-0 in the Valley District — taking the district title also for the third time in a row. Along the way, the WHS harriers won their own "Little Giant Classic" over seven other schools, took the Eastern Mennonite Invitational from a field of fourteen teams, and out classed thirty-four other squads in the UVA Invitational. Placing fourth in the Regional Meet and seventh in the State, the Little Giants closed out the year with the best record of any cross country team in WHS history. As with any successful team, there were many outstanding individuals. Among them, seniors Jimmy Eckenrode, David Campbell, Jay Ramsey, and David Miller compiled an overall record of 44-2. Junior Glenn Aylor and Sophs. Steve Fuller and Andy Quada were also outstanding.

In only their first year of competition, the WHS Girls Cross Country team forged a very strong 5-0 record and seemed set to continue the school's tradition in this sport.

WINNERS

We started in August when it was hot;
We thought we could win; we thought we had a shot.
We practiced hard day after day;
We learned our defenses and some new plays.
We got along great and worked together happily;
We were beginning to be a team and a close knit family-
Then came Eastern Mennonite, our first game;
We were winning the whole time, but lost in shame;
We eventually lost many games that way.
We didn't know why, so we were always in dismay.
We gave it our all each and every night-
We had determination, drive, and might.
We just didn't have enough to come out on top,
But we wouldn't give up; we wouldn't stop.
We took most teams right down to the wire,
But we didn't have enough (we were like a car that had a flat tire).
Some of us would go on the mountain before each game-
We would sing songs and have a prayer in God's name.
This gave us spirit and our strength within-
We just seemed to lose it when the last quarter was to begin.
We wanted to be the best, but our bubble had burst, and
We ended up being the next to the worst.
But that was in standings, (how many games you had won),
But I think we were first in pride and having fun.
One of the most important things is being a good sport,
And we showed this sportmanship on and off the court.
We may not have been the best in the league,
But I know in life, our team will succeed.
We have nothing to be ashamed of and should hold high our chins,
For we know the real secret of how to win.

POWER AND SPIKE

In only their second year of competition, the WHS Girl's Volleyball Team forged a remarkable 8-0 Valley District record and won the district title. Led by such outstanding players as Stephanie Tyson, Robin Gunn, Marian Morris, and Karen Crawley, the Lady Giants posted an overall record of 10-2, losing only to Eastern Mennonite. Tyson, generally recognized as the team leader, received the "Most Outstanding Player Award" while Morris was named "Outstanding Offensive Player" for leading the squad in spikes. The "Outstanding Defensive Player Award" went to Gunn who was depicted by Coach Sue Leonard as a "good hustler." All-Valley District honors were won by Tyson and Morris (first team) and Crawley (second team). The dominant force for the WHS J.V. Squad was Alycia Quick.

Commenting on the 1980-1981 WHS Varsity Basketball Team, Coach Larry Leonard said, "This year's team is closest to reaching its full potential than any other I've coached." Led by Sidney Diggs (18.2 scoring average), Danny Turner, Reecie Miller, and Alphonso Woodson, the Little G's posted a 5-5 record in the "new" Valley District and finished 12-10 overall. Two especially important events highlighted the season. One occurred when Waynesboro hosted the Albemarle Patriots and remarkably came from 11 points behind to win the game. The second was the thrilling victory over Western Albemarle in the Valley District Tournament.

J.V.'S MAKE PROGRESS

The 1980-1981 Little Giant Junior Varsity Basketball Team fashioned records of 5-5 in the Valley District and 12-6 overall. Although this was not quite as good as recent years, the J.V.'s still could be proud of their accomplishments. Coach C.J. DeWitt noted his satisfaction with the team and indicated that his young cagers improved as the season progressed. Leaders on this year's squad were Mike Dillard and Robby Rule in scoring average, while Rule and Jeff Woods were the top rebounders.

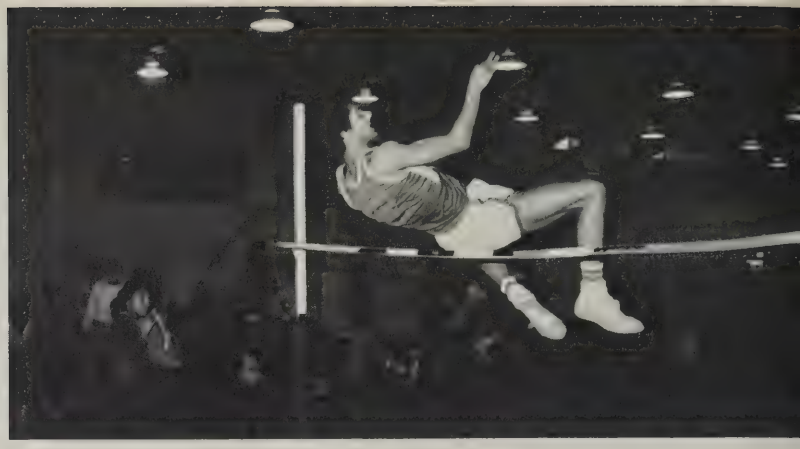
GRAPPLERS GO FOR IT

The 1980-1981 WHS Varsity Wrestling Team enjoyed a very successful season as they tied the school record with eight victories in duel meets. Standouts on the squad were Jon Schriver, Andy Talbert, and Mark Bowman. Schriver captured first place in State Region II competition, while Talbert and Bowman placed third and fourth in their respective weight classifications. Reflecting on this year's grapplers, Coach George Buzzard said, "Overall, this was one of our best seasons. Of the ten guys sent to Regionals, eight are returning. Prospects look very bright for next year."



ON TO VICTORY

Led by such standouts as Jimmy Eckenrode, John Lewis, Darrell Jones, and Steve Fuller, the 1980-1981 WHS Indoor Track Team was virtually unbeatable. A number of school records were broken during the season as Eckenrode excelled in the triple jump, Lewis was the most outstanding athelte in the 1000 meter run, Jones came up tops in the 55 meter dash, while Fuller had exceptional performances in the 3200 meter run. Capping off a triumpant year, which included victories in the Lexington and two Buena Vista Invitationals, the Little Giant contingent won the Valley District Indoor Track title.

RALLYING WITH HARRISONBURG

The 1981 Lady Giant Tennis Team enjoyed a very successful year as they went undefeated (8-0) in district competition and finished 10-2 overall during the regular season, losing only to Harrisonburg. In the Valley District Tournament, Waynesboro won the team championship while Stephanie Tyson and Beth Knicely captured the doubles title. Advancing to Region II competition, the Lady G's ran into their season-long nemesis Harrisonburg, and lost to the Blue Streaks for the third time. Looking back over the season, Coach Pat Austin named Stephanie Tyson as the team MVP while Sharon Ayers was judged as the most improved player. With only Tyson graduating, the Lady Giants have an outstanding squad returning to do battle next year.

Coach Pat Austin.

GIRLS TENNIS TEAM — FIRST ROW: CeCe Perkins, Renae Lawhorne, Ann Smith, Jackie Knicely. SECOND ROW: Stephanie Tyson, Bri Salminens, Sharon Ayers, Cathy Hartnett, Jill Gresham, Beth Knicely.

A LOB FOR SECOND

A second-place tie with Lee High in the Valley District standings was the major accomplishment of the Waynesboro High School Boys Tennis Team. The best matches of the regular season were against Harrisonburg. Waynesboro came out on top on the Leemen's home courts, but lost a heart-breaker to the Blue Streaks. In the Valley District Tournament, Tracy Roberts won his opening singles match but lost in the second round to the eventual champ. In the doubles competition, Roberts and Kirk Riggan went all the way to the finals where they lost to Stuarts Draft.

A SWING FOR VICTORY

The Waynesboro High School Golf Team made giant strides during the 1981 season. The linksters surprised a lot of their rivals by capturing the Valley District and Region II team titles. Despite what Coach Ron Hennis described as one "bad day", the WHS squad finished fifth in the State Golf Tournament. The outstanding golfers on this year's team were Mark Teachey and David Crum.

The 1981 Little Giant Outdoor Track Team went through the regular season in outstanding fashion, compiling a 7-0 record in meets and winning the Rotary and Fluvanna Invitationals along the way. The Little G-s also finished a very respectable twelfth place in the prestigious Knoxville Relays and sixth in the Dogwood Relays held in Charlottesville. In the Valley District Meet, the WHS squad looked superb while capturing the title by a wide margin and scoring the most points ever in this competition. Going into regional competition as one of the clear favorites, the Little Giants finished a disappointing fifth which all but ended their chances for the state title. Among the outstanding individuals this year were Jimmy Eckenrode who set a new school record in the triple jump, sprinter Darrell Jones, and pole vaulter Mike Cook. The two-mile relay team of Eckenrode, John Lewis, David Campbell, and Andy Quada broke the school record in this event.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF

TEAM CAPTAINS: Bonnie Owens, Michelle Davis.

"This is the hardest working track team I have ever coached," commented Coach Sue Leonard after the WHS girl's squad established eight school records to conclude the 1981 season with marks of 2-3 in the Valley District and 3-4 overall. The team, consisting of many newcomers, placed third in the district meet and was represented by twice as many people in regional competition. Highlighting the season was sprinter Penny Berry who broke the 100 and 220-yard dashes and ran a leg in the 440 and 880-yard relays. Other standouts included Bonnie Owens who set a new school record in the 880 and Marian Morris who broke the shot put record. Also contributing to the team's success were Bonita Berry in the 440, Barbi Plank in the one and two-mile runs, Karen Crawley in the high jump, and Penny Quick and Sandy Hufford in the shot and discus. Said Coach Leonard, "There was a lot of leadership this year — we had seven outstanding seniors. This was really a good team to work with."

Scorekeeper Lynette Moore and Coach Dick Moyer.

TEAM EFFORT IS SUCCESSFUL

Coach Dick Moyer characterized the 1981 WHS Little Giant Baseball Team as a group that worked together well — one that gave a real "team effort." The diamond stars completed the season 9-7 overall, but posted a fine 7-3 district mark which was good enough for second place. Their best effort of the year was an 11-1 romp over the Lee High nine, while another exciting game was the victory over errorprone Western Albemarle. Outstanding players this year were Bruce Coffey, Scott Snead, and C.H. Oliver, all of whom batted well over .300 with Coffey hitting the magic mark of .400.

During the 1981 softball season, the WHS team posted respectable records of 8-8 overall and 4-2 in the Valley district, the latter earning the Lady Giants second place in district competition. Highlights of the year included a thrilling come from behind victory in the final inning of the season opener against Madison and the win over Lee High as the Lady G's banged our 13 hits against Lee's "no hit" pitcher Holly Cope. Outstanding performers this year for Waynesboro were Robin Gunn, most valuable player; Susie Moore, best offensive player; and Penny Quick, best defensive player. Other WHS greats included Alycia Quick, Karen Crawley, and Marian Morris. Coach George Buzzard praised his team by saying, "They made me the proudest of all the softball teams I've ever coached."
